Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

*“When you are invited, go and take the LOWEST place so that when the HOST comes to you he may say,
‘My friend, move up to a HIGHER position.’
For every one who EXALTS himself
will be humbled,
but the one who HUMBLER himself will be exalted.”*

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A cartoon by Rina Piccolo in Parade Magazine [June 27, 2010] shows a little girl, with her back pack, about to get on the bus to go to summer camp for the first time. Her mother lovingly offers these reassuring words to her nervous daughter: "You'll make lots of friends, honey . . . provided you exploit the right social-networking tools to your advantage."

It's the way of the world: give to those that can raise your profile, make time for those who can advance your career, do for those who can later do for you. But Jesus asks us to see one another from the perspective of Gospel humility: humility that realizes that we are not the center of all things but part of a much larger world, humility that is centered in gratitude for all the blessings we have received as a result of the depth of God's love and not because of anything we have done to deserve it. God's banquet table includes places of honor for every poor, hurting, confused soul. The spirit of humility as taught by Jesus is the realization that we share with every human the dignity of being made in the image and likeness of God; Christ-like humility is the ability to see one another as God sees us and to rejoice in being ministers to one another in the joys and struggles we all experience.

(Adapted from Connections August 2010)

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Do you like reading to children? What could be a better thing to read to children than scripture! We are looking for new volunteers to lead Children's Liturgy of the Word during the 11am mass. Children are dismissed during the Liturgy of the Word in order to hear the readings in language that is easier for them to understand. Volunteers read the readings to the children and discuss the themes present in these readings. If you are interested please contact Sarah Ayran at the parish office as soon as possible.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

September 5, 2010
Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1 Wis 9:13-18b

Who can know God's counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends?
For the deliberations of mortals are timid, and unsure are our plans.

For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns.
And scarce do we guess the things on earth,
and what is within our grasp we find with difficulty;
but when things are in heaven, who can search them out?
Or who ever knew your counsel, except you had given Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from on high?
And thus were the paths of those on earth made straight.

Reading 2 Phmn 9-10, 12-17

I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner for Christ Jesus, urge you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment;
I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.
I should have liked to retain him for myself, so that he might serve me on your behalf in my imprisonment for the gospel, but I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that the good you do might not be forced but voluntary.
Perhaps this is why he was away from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a brother, beloved especially to me, but even more so to you, as a man and in the Lord.
So if you regard me as a partner, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel Lk 14:25-33

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.
Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion?

Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.'

Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops?

But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms.

In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

We receive Communion, we do not take . When receiving the Body of Christ in the hand, place the hand you write with under the hand you will receive, in a way, creating a throne for the Lord. A simple bow of the head to the Eucharist before receiving is appropriate.

MESSAGE FROM LEAST

(LPi Energy Awareness and Savings Team)

There are ways to reduce the unwanted solicitations that waste valuable energy and resources and, just as importantly—your precious time!

The last but not least suggestion is:

5. Stop the unwanted phone books. Every phone book company will have a number you can call to remove your address from their delivery lists. The Yellow Book number is 1-800-929-3556.

CYCLES OF FAITH

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Are you planning a cookout next weekend? Many people use the Labor Day holiday as an opportunity for an end of the summer celebration. The grocery stores will have special sales this week in an effort to entice people to stock up for the holiday weekend. Are you a union member who will be going to a large labor picnic? Or will it just be the family getting together, maybe at the beach or a lake cottage for a final summer plunge in the water? In any event, we all probably have a pretty good idea of who will be at our tables. It's unlikely that there will be uninvited guests—except for the ants or mosquitoes that seem to plague any outdoor event this time of year.

In the Gospel today Jesus lays down the challenge of who should be invited to the banquet. The poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind are the ones that are on his guest list. These were the individuals who were often excluded from society in Jesus' time. They were the folks that were on the fringe. Today, there are righteous people who have made a point of welcoming the unwanted. They've taken literally the message of the Gospel, and have gone out of their way to invite to dinner the homeless or the poor.

There are many who exercise a very concrete response to Jesus' call through their support of a meal program or food pantry, whether they donate food, or their time, or cash to support the good work. We tend to think of the poor at Thanksgiving or Christmas, times when we're often more generous toward those in need. But with back-to-school costs right now, many families are suffering. It may not be possible to invite someone who is hungry or poor to your cookout next weekend, but you can still help them through a gift to a charity that feeds the hungry.
